SALVATION ARMY LEADS COUPLE TO CONJUGIAL BLISS

Law Offenders in Police Court Taken in Charge and Married.

FATHER IS THERE TO TAKE DAUGHTER HOME

Man is Convicted of Selling Liquor and is Heavily Fined.

Crime, charity, parental love, humor and law, were strangely blended in a series of stories revealed in a number of cases at the police court this morning following the raiding of a house by the police early this morning. The center of the scene was laid at the Dundas House on Fraser avenue, the proprietor of which, George Percy, appeared charged as being the keeper of a lewd house and having illegally sold liquor to persons therein. On the first charge he was fined $100 and costs, and on the second charge was fined $150 and costs. Three months imprisonment, sentences to run concurrently.

This house has been under the surveillance of the police for some time and on more than one occasion has been visited by them, and several girls of questionable character taken away from there and dealt with in court or otherwise. A number of girls of unsavory reputation, well known to the police, were numbered among these. The case of one, however, was somewhat varied from the others. When arrested she explained that she was broke and had to have money that she might eat, and begged the detectives not to take her to the station. She was taken however, and her case mentioned to the Salvation Army, who were successful in being given charge of the girl and also the man with whom she was found, and through the influence of the army officials the couple were happily married this morning and have gone to the country to start a new life. In the raid at the same house early today, Annie Wainman and Alice Mulvaney were brought in. In company with George and Frank Smith, before the magistrate this morning they could not deny having been found in the lewd house and were given severe warnings by the court and allowed 24 hours to get out of the city, under penalty of imprisonment if not obeying that order. But Alice Mulvaney was the more fortunate of the pair. She when Fred Beer and her father happened to be in Edmonton today and appeared in court to ask that his daughter might be given another chance. The court order was made with him. This the court agreed to, and her head hung low when her father said the court told her she should be more than ashamed to stand before her own father on such an occasion.

In this same case the evidence of Detective Fyran, Roberts and Krotting went to show that the man, that on one occasion had offered to bribe the detectives to keep them away from his house. Once he had said "I'll pay $1200 for this house and I will make expenses out of it somehow, and I can't afford to take anyone in and come up for a room." It was shown that he did knowingly admit persons of questionable character to occupy his rooms.

On the liquor charge, not a little humor pervaded the court and audience. Heron counsel for the defense, E. Jackson, waxed fluent in his defense and argument, relating in strange terms of convoluted blarney and the simple life. A number of bottles of the wet goods were produced in court as evidence.

Another wedding as a result of a police court case was also that of Frank Horio, Japanese, and Miss Wainwright, who were married yesterday following a charge against the former of seduction under promises of marriage.

TRADING ACTIVE; "DRILLERS" BEING GREAT FAVORITES

Exchange Finds So Much Buying and Selling Carried on That Staff Must Be Doubled—Union Pacific Using Rotary and Making Rapid Progress—Oil Trust Now Said to Be Looking Over Fields.

Many of the oil companies are getting down to actual drilling and development work and it is rather remarkable that this has so far caused sharp advances in prices, which would seem to indicate that indications for oil are good in those companies which thus advance.

The Metropolitan exchange, 40 Jasper west, which is trading stocks for Edmontonians through direct wire connections with Calgary, today reported trading very active. Charles T. Tubb, the managing director, announces that business is so good that he will simply have to double his staff. Mr. Tubb is one of the young men of the west and has certainly shown the true western spirit. He is prominently connected with the Spartan Oil, Limited, and reports that the shares of that company are also selling fast. One of the most active stocks at the exchange this morning was Union Pacific, which started the other day to drill and which is now down about 200 shares. This stock was quoted on the Calgary exchange at about 22 in small blocks, while now it is 38 and 40, and going higher. Mr. Tubb stated this morning that officials of Spartan, Union Pacific was one of the most favored since the Calgary wire has been put in.

Intersection of Anticlines. The Union Pacific well is being put down on legal subdivision 1, section 1, township 21, range 4, west of the fourth meridian, at what geologists assert is the intersection of the Linham and Dugan anticlines. It is 24 miles south-west of the McQuillan-Beggs property.

For the first time in Alberta a combination rotary and high standard drill rig is being used on an oil well in connection with the development of this property. The rotary attachment is new in use, which accounts for the rapid progress that is being made. The process is similar to the diamond drill familiar to hard rock miners. Attached to the drill are black explosives—real dynamite—the value of the drill setting being about $4,000. This furnishes the cutting surface, and where the formation is adapted to this kind of drilling the progress is very rapid. The

THREE HUNDRED MINERS IN BRAZEAU COLLIERIES ARE ON A WAGE STRIKE

Calgary, June 25.—Three hundred miners in the Brazeau Collieries Limited at Nordegg, Alberta, are on strike owing to the fact that the company will not meet their demands in the matter of wages. The trouble originated out of the fact that when, in April of this year, the miners organized under the United Mine Workers' of America, the district officers from Pernie were unable to get the company to sign an agreement. However, a verbal agreement was made according to the union district officers, to the effect that the present scale of wages would be in effect till June 15th, and that a new schedule would be put in effect to be drawn by the time. Apparently there is no hope of settlement at present.

ARSON SQUAD OF "FURIES" CAUSES CHURCH DAMAGE

Belfast, Ireland, June 25th.—An arson squad of suffragettes caused extensive damage to the Episcopal church at Ballylennan, near here early today. The destruction of the entire church was averted only by the timely arrival of the sexton who succeeded in extinguishing the flames. He found quantities of burning petrol, fire lighters, grease and cotton wool littered around.

EVEN LIBERALS ARE ADMITTING TO BE UNEASY

Division in House of Commons Promising to Arouse Much Interest.

GOVERNMENT FINANCE POLICY CHALLENGED

Laborites Declare They Will Abstain from Voting Against Amendment.

London, June 25.—Tonight's division in the house of commons, challenging the government's finance policy, promises much interest. Even the Liberals admit much uneasiness, while the laborites declare that they will abstain from voting against the opposition's amendment which asserts the absence of imperial grants to local authorities. The government, however, with the Irish vote behind them, will probably have 50 majority. Next Wednesday will see the same rule amended, which will be the house of commons' last reading. The unionist leaders are having daily conferences regarding the amendment, and they will submit during the second reading. Some unionist peers favor rejecting the bill altogether, but this course is being disapproved by the party leaders whose line of campaign is to offer suggestions for amendment and leave the government the responsibility of rejecting or approving. More than six months ago the Canadian Associated Press directed attention to the squally over home rule shown by the average English elector. This morning's Daily Telegraph (unionist) in appealing for serious consideration of the grave situation in Ireland, says:

"The active and earnest preparations for armed conflict upon which the whole of Ireland, North and South, is fixed, might as well be going on in Madagascar or Mauritius instead of in Great Britain's sister island for all the interest they appear to be arousing among the great mass of educated men and women who do not habitually follow public affairs."

The Telegraph goes on to admit that concessions must come from both sides, but if Ulstermen are not secured such freedom of choice as bare self sacrifice demands and such recognition of their corporate unity as common sense demands, there must be disaster.

The Yorkshire Post (liberal) remarks today that there would be some sort of reasonable compromise. Ulstermen could only awaken to the fact that home rule is now inevitable and their English allies, says the Post, cannot possibly prevent it becoming law. Nothing short of a coup d'etat can now intervene between Ireland and self government. Orange Ulster has not the slightest idea that this is the situation, certain as it is in political history. Once the Orange Ulster men made to realize the true state of things they would drop bluster and like the business men they claim to be, would make the best arrangements for themselves. Nobody on the unionist side is attempting to open their eyes to this unpleasant.

The fact that Lord Londonderry would be a factor, who all the hopes quite stupidly, on some desperate odds, are against any such attempt, declares the Yorkshire Post, that the only one who realizes the situation thoroughly and sincerely desires an arrangement, is we thought, and has surrendered himself passively to the Londonderry faction. It is rather curious, concludes the Yorkshire Post, that the only one, long leader, who has publicly acknowledged defeat, is Balfour, who, in the house of commons, a few months ago, admitted that the game was up.

Western Churches Improving. London, June 25.—The Archbishop of Western Canada has received £250,000 less last year than in the year previous. A steamer had sunk off the coast of Canada, £3,000 were sent direct to Canada, £3,000 were passed to other church secretaries. Supporters here noted with surprise that the Western churches are gradually becoming self supporting.

LARGE AREAS FILED ON BY GOLD SEEKERS NORTH PRINCE ALBERT

Prince Albert, June 25.—Since the reports reached the city in the early part of the year that gold-bearing quartz existed in large quantities at Beaver Lake, 80 mineral claims in the locality have been filed at the local office for dominion lands. This figure represents an acreage of 4,450, or about 70 square miles, and incidentally means that over two townships have been staked by prospectors who have actually registered.

Besides these there are claims staked in the locality which are never officially registered at any office, and of which the registration office has received no intimation beyond hearsay. There are reported to be well over 500 prospectors even now in the field.

Filling Up Sewall Camp. Sewall, Man. June 25.—With the arrival of the advance party of the 22nd Prince Albert Volunteers at 8 o'clock this morning the infantry lines to the southeast are beginning to be populated. This makes the second advance party for the infantry that has arrived up to date. They were soon at work in their line pitching tents and getting equipment ready for the main body of their regiment which will arrive tomorrow night.

UNDER PROTECTION OF COURT ANSWERS QUESTIONS FREELY

Claims He Had No Other Interest Than That of Ordinary Citizen.

ADmits BEING GOOD FRIEND TO 'ROUNDERS'

Alderman May, On Oath, Declares He Did Not Know of the "Policy."

William Wheeler, late manager of the Dominion club, and one of the principal figures in the police investigation proceedings, was on the stand at the inquiry today. O. M. Biggar, K.C. asked Wheeler if he understood that any evidence he gave at the investigation would not be used against him in regard to subsequent proceedings, except as to proceedings for perjury in connection with any untruthful statements. Wheeler said he understood this and would have no objection to answering any questions.

Wheeler said he got to know Lancy through going to him over being held-up and his diamonds, worth $1,500, stolen. After that he used to discuss with Lancy three or four times a week, either at the police station or at the Dominion club, the conditions regarding open houses of ill fame in the city. He denied that he had any other interest than that of an ordinary citizen in the matter.

Following the hold-up and theft of his diamonds, Wheeler said he accused Detective Coleman of knowing the thief and refusing to arrest him. Witness believed the man who handled the diamonds after they were stolen was Harry Smith, Carmen Daily's man.

Witness said he had no interest in the gambling joint next to the Dominion club, other than being a friend of Freddy Keane, the proprietor. He also said that he was sore at being held up because he had always been a good friend to gamblers and men who followed race meetings—men generally known as "rounders," and thought he should have been exempt. He did not think the police treated him squarely in the matter.

Alderman May denied emphatically, on the stand, that he had been present at a meeting in Mayor McNamara's office when A. C. Lancy was present and the morality question was discussed. He said he had certain ideas as to how the problem should be handled, having lived in New York and knowing how the problem was handled there and in Paris and Vienna, but he knew that the criminal code of Canada prohibited the harboring of disorderly houses and that the chief of police had no discretion in the matter. He said he did not know that a policy of "gates ajar" had been agreed upon.

Detective Fyran, in reply to Alderman Clarke, said that he did not think it possible that Blanche Harpole knew that Joe Clarke had got the money she said she paid to Allen, of the St. Regis. Mr. Biggar stated that he had asked for an opportunity to go on the stand. Mr. May said he noticed ex-

A bench warrant was issued for Robert Williams, who is alleged to have offered $140 to William Higgins and P. T. Rutherford if they would withdraw a prosecution against John Martin, or Jew John, for having stolen $40 from Rutherford.

At the resumption of the inquiry this morning, Alderman May took the stand. Mr. Biggar stating that he had asked for an opportunity to go on the stand. Mr. May said he noticed ex-

LANCEY ON STAND BLAMES ALL UPON ADMINISTRATION

Declares Commissioner Booth
Endorsed Policy, But Tried to Sidestep.

"I WAS THROUGH WITH POLICE DEPARTMENT"

Made Up His Mind to Quit as Soon As He Saw That Change Was Coming.

"I thought Booth was trying to make the scapegoat of me," declared ex-Chief of Police A. C. Lancy, on the witness stand at the police investigation yesterday afternoon. "Otherwise I could not understand why he so suddenly changed his mind and wanted these houses raided. That was sufficient for me—when I got these written instructions to raid the houses; I had finished with the police department and I wrote out my resignation, but decided to sleep over it. Next day I sent my resignation with a constable to the city hall."

Detective Dick Fryant, on the stand, declared that Blanche Harpo, a woman of ill-repute, told him that she had paid $100 to Mr. Allen of the St. Regis Hotel and was to pay $100 per month. Witness asked her if she knew who the money was for and she said "Joe Clarke got it," but witness did not think she knew who got it.

First Street Raid.

Ex-Chief Lancy said that he received instructions to raid the gambling place on First street and he gave the same instructions to Seymour, who left the details to Seymour, who was an officer of considerable experience. Witness did not think it necessary to take steps to remedy Seymour's default in not getting the paraphernalia, as he thought the men could be convicted without the paraphernalia. Wheeler told him that Fred Kearns was the proprietor, and asked if he could plead guilty for all the frequenters. Witness told him that that was not within his jurisdiction, and he should see the magistrate.

Mr. Bigger: What interest did you think Wheeler had?

Witness: He seemed to be befriending these men.

Did you know he had the reputation of being the official fixer?—I did not.

Witness said the raid was "nothing special." If any one of the citizens had complained, he would have dealt with the matter in the same way.

Was Very Busy.

Did you know that 50 out of the 80 houses were taken never appeared? "What were the next steps you took?"

I didn't take any; I was very busy that week.

Chief Sandells produced the police records in connection with the raid. Chief Lancy's examination was continued. He next reviewed the receipt of the letter from Commissioner Booth, dated May 20, and telling him to close all houses of prostitution.

Mr. Bigger: Did you close those houses?

Witness: I did not attempt to. That letter was sufficient for me.

Witness: I was through with the police department. I believe I instructed Seymour to close the houses on First and Jasper.

"Make Me Scapegoat"

Were your instructions limited to those on First and Jasper?—They were.

Why?—Because apparently he did not want the other places closed. I was not very much concerned in carrying out those instructions at that time. I was more concerned on my own behalf trying to figure out what had caused Mr. Booth to change his mind in so short a time.

I know Sunday?—Yes. Knowing what I know now, I see why that letter was contradictory.

You thought the door was still slightly ajar?—Yes; and that he intended to make me the scapegoat.

Mr. Bigger read Mr. Booth's letter:

By Royal Warrant

of May 21, stating that all houses were to be closed.

Witness said that Mr. Booth had evidently thought over his letter of the previous day and had decided to close not only those on First street and Jasper, but all the houses. The letter had gone and he could not recall it.

"Bolt from the Blue"

"The wording of those letters," said witness, "proved to me that Mr. Booth knew of the houses all along. The letter of the 20th came like a bolt from the blue."

Regarding the list of houses which Seymour said Lancy handed him on the afternoon of May 21, witness said he had no recollection of giving him that list, although the copy of a list produced was rather familiar to him.

Mr. Bigger: Seymour says you told him to go round and tell the places to close up; the game was up?—The game was up. I don't know whether I said so. (Laughter.)

Did you tell Seymour to go?—I believe I did.

Did you telephone Mignon Durand?—No; I did not. I did not phone any of these women. I was not much interested how Seymour told them.

Witness said he dismissed Inspector Campbell on Booth's instructions. He also reinstated Wright. He also reinstated Carroll at Mayor McNamara's suggestion. He reinstated Adams on his own initiative. Greg, Sylvester, Edwards and Lang were all reinstated on the suggestion of Commissioner Booth. He believed he himself was responsible for the reinstatement of Cathart.

"Protection" Money.

The only time I heard anything about police protection was in the case of Detective Coleman?—There were two other cases of suspicion. Seymour reported a case of a woman on Athabasca avenue, and we suspected a member of the staff. I gave instructions for her to keep him busy if he called again and telephoned the police. The other case was Jasper street, where a young chauffeur was beaten up and a woman said he had asked for protection.

Any action taken?—No; I believed the young fellow's story, who said that the other chauffeur had stood him up to go in there to see what the place was like. The woman went after him with her fists and some bottles, and had the assistance of a Chinese cook. The young fellow was pretty badly hurt.

Mr. Bigger: You can furnish the names of the woman and the man?—Yes.

Mr. Bigger: That will do for the present.

"Joe Clarke Got It"

Detective Fryant was then called. He said he knew Blanche Harpo, but he had not seen her for some time. He corroborated the story told by Inspector Burbeck regarding Blanche Harpo's statement that she had paid $100 to Mr. Allen of the St. Regis hotel, and she had refused to pay him. He said that he had refused to pay him. He said that he had refused to pay him. He said that he had refused to pay him.

Did you ask her how she knew?—No; I did not. I was not interested in that.

HOLE IN EMPRESS TOOK 260 TONS OF WATER A SECOND

Employee of shipbuilding Com-

Another Effort Will Be Made to Get 800 Bodies Locked in Sunken Ship.

Quebec, June 25.—The explanation of all the suggestions that have been made during the inquiry into the wreck of the Empress of Ireland and about the vessel's steering gear came out yesterday afternoon when Percy Hillhouse, belonging to the Fairfield Shipbuilding company, which constructed her, continued his evidence to the dominion commission. Answering questions put to him by C. S. Haight, of counsel for the owners of the collier Siorstad, Mr. Hillhouse explained how, after an accident to her in 1908 one foot was added to the Empress' rudder area to improve her steering qualities.

Mr. Hillhouse gave the first adequate explanation of the actual injury to the Empress, and, telling of the water rushing through a clear of 32 square feet in dimension at the rate of 260 tons a second, gave a vivid impression of how it came about that the liner listed over quickly and shortly afterwards capsized.

Diver Gives Evidence.

Another noteworthy feature of the commission's hearing yesterday was the evidence of Gunner Wilfrid Whitehead, the diver from H.M.S. Essex, who, in addition to inspecting the hull of the Empress, risked his life in an effort to save that of Edward Cosens, the American diver who died from injuries received at the wreck.

The announcement yesterday that Whitehead was to appear, brought hundreds of ladies to the court, several from the entourage of the Duchess of Connaught and the Princess Patricia, one of whom sketched him. Whitehead was very modest and being mentioned that he had "gone down to the wreck on Sunday in an emergency," made no reference to his courageous, if unsuccessful, effort to rescue Cosens before it was too late.

Try For Bodies.

Whitehead and other divers of the Essex were ordered from the court yesterday afternoon to the scene of the accident after a conference between Captain Walsh, marine superintendent of the G.T.P., and Captain Watson of the cruiser, at which it was decided to once more try to get the 800 bodies entombed in the Empress, despite the fact that this work had been abandoned following a report indicating its difficulties and dangers after an investigation of them.

Captain Kendall appeared in the box yesterday afternoon to answer questions relating to the time his ship traveled on the two courses taken after leaving Father Point and before the accident in connection with the attempt being made to get reliable data upon which to raise the exact position of the liner when she was struck.

The captain's time for dropping his pilot did not agree with that of Captain Inlander, of the Europa, who picked up Pilot Bernier.

Alberta's Share $51,310

Ottawa, June 25.—Alberta's share of the vote of the Dominion parliament under the provisions of the agricultural instruction act for the year 1914 is $51,310, according to the figures received at the department, arrived at between Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, and the provincial government.

STREET IN CHURCH AS RESULT GREAT FIRE

Revelstoke, B. C., June 25.—Revelstoke's main street, McKenzie avenue, is littered with household effects, hurriedly snatched from the street, and now in ashes or for a long time were in imminent peril. Women and children, dressed in their best, were seen in their night clothes, and wrapped in blankets early this morning mournfully regarded the ruins of their homes. The city, except for the lurid light of the blazing buildings, was in darkness, the lights having been turned out to avert the danger of live wires. Half of a block in the heart of the business section of the city is in ruins. The fire has been checked at the upper end, and the C. P. R. tracks at the lower end prevents danger of the blaze spreading further. The splendid water pressure and the able and heroic efforts of the fire brigade alone prevented a disaster of the magnitude that threatened to lay a whole block on both sides of the street in ruins. The Revelstoke fire department was called out, and though badly charred, and damaged by water and smoke, Adams' jewelry store, the Golden Rule, the Great West and Peace River Land company's office, Robson's Bakery and Grocery store, Hoeningers Brothers Tobacco store, Trueman's Photographic Studio and Reid and Barton's Photographic Studio are practically gone, although the fire is still blazing in the lower end of the block and the fire brigade is striving to quench the flames. About the stores were numerous living rooms all of which have been consumed although some of the contents have been rescued and are now piled on the main street of the city. It is not believed that any lives have been lost as the fire brigade searched the rooms and rescued all who could be found.

Fortunately the night was calm; had a wild wind been blowing nothing could have saved the block as far as the St. James bank.

The fire started at the rear of the London Chop house from a stove in the kitchen.

There were some narrow escapes, the residents of rooms above the bank, Barrios Photographic studio climbed through the upper windows and dropped from a window to the street just before the flames burst through the windows.

SPANISH DRIVE OUT
MOORS IN STUBBORN,
BLOODY ENGAGEMENT

Madrid, June 25.—General Morgana, commanding the Spanish forces in the vicinity of Tetuan, Morocco, reports that a severe engagement took place yesterday. A strong Spanish column encamped before the fortified positions of the Moors, and advanced early in the morning, supported by artillery. The Moors resisted stubbornly for several hours, but in the afternoon they fled in confusion, leaving a large number of dead and wounded.

The Spanish losses are officially given as two officers and forty men killed and wounded.

The British ambassador in Madrid, who has been visiting the Spanish position for the last week, left yesterday for Seville.

USE PROTECTION OF PORT ANSWERS QUESTIONS FREELY

Chief Lacey had stated that he was present at a meeting in Mayor McNamara's office where Chief Lacey was present and at which the morality of the city was discussed.

"I have certain ideas as to how that should be handled and if I had been there I would have expressed them in a manner which Mr. Lacey would have appreciated."

Mr. Hagar: In regard to Mr. McNamara's statement of the policy of the council, did you know of any such conclusion having been arrived at? Absolutely none.

Thought She Did Not Know

Detective Richard Bryant again went into the box.

Alfredman Clarke asked Mr. Hagar to permit him to put a few questions in regard to witness' interview with the woman Blanche Hurler.

Alfredman Clarke: When she said she paid protection for the purpose of getting you and other policeman out of your duty did you not follow it up and ascertain definitely why she was of opinion that I had got this money?

Witness: The woman Hurler said she did not look possible that she knew absolutely or had any reason to believe that the money was paid to you. I don't see how she could know that the money was paid to you.

Did she say she knew me? No, she said she did not know you; she had never seen you to her knowledge.

Alfredman Clarke: That will do.

Gambling Raid

Witness went on to tell incidents connected with the gambling raid in the city. He said that the system employed in taking the names of the frequenters was faulty, as police officers were taking names in three different rooms and the men would say, when asked for their names, that they were given them to the other fellow.

In this way he supposed that not more than half the names had been taken. In addition he knew that many of the names of the names and addresses given were fictitious.

No Good Worrying.

Witness said he had subsequently heard that the gambling was going on there the next day. Witness said: "It was no use my worrying myself and my chief; I had nothing to do with it."

Justice Scott asked him if it was not his duty as a detective to keep the police posted on the gambling.

Witness stated that he was under orders. If he had said to some of the boys, "Come on, let's raid that place protection money," they would have said they would have told me to go to thunder, or some other place.

He told Seymour that they were gambling again and Seymour said he knew it.

Witness said: "I could do nothing now, I can do anything now."

Justice Scott: Since when has it been different? Witness: Since Kroning has been in charge.

Mr. Ewing asked witness why, when he knew Seymour was devoted to the duty, he did not go to Seymour's support? Witness replied that he had been told that one before and was told to take his orders from Seymour.

Wheeler and Seymour.

Did you have any conversations with Seymour about the protection money? Yes, I was talking to him about it every night for two weeks before Seymour was dismissed.

What was the subject of the conversation? Wheeler had called him up and told him to see him at the club; that he had done so and White had said about the collection of this money and that it was split four or six different ways and that he was to get the money.

"What was the subject of the conversation?" I asked Seymour when it was split and he did not answer.

Known Things Were Retten.

Did you press him for an answer? I pressed him for a great many answers.

Witness said people "all seemed to know an awful lot about it," but as soon as you began to ask them questions they did not know anything.

Mr. Hagar: That's what we found also.

Witness admitted that he was very curious to know how the money was split. Seymour was like the rest.

Deputy Mayor East and Alderman Kinney Deny Knowing of "Policy"

Deputy Mayor East and Alderman J. A. Kinney went into the box at the inquiry this afternoon and denied that they knew of the "gates ajar" policy in regard to houses of ill-fame, also that they were ever present at a meeting with Chief Lacey, also that they were present in regard to crime or vice conditions in the city. I never heard of any such conclusion being arrived at, as stated, in regard to the policy of the administration."

Alderman J. A. Kinney stated that he noticed in the press that he was said to have been present at a meeting with Chief Lacey was present and at which the morality of the city was discussed. I was never present at any such meeting with Chief Lacey or any other person when the policy of the city in regard to vice was discussed. I did not know of any such policy.

In reply to H. H. Robertson Mr. Kinney admitted that on one occasion when he was present at a meeting with Chief Lacey was present and at which the morality of the city was discussed. I was never present at any such meeting with Chief Lacey or any other person when the policy of the city in regard to vice was discussed. I did not know of any such policy.

Witness said that he had a regular jubilee night at the Opus club where he was going to see the show. He said that he was going to see the show. He said that he was going to see the show.

"Was Double-Crossed"

"I heard they had a regular jubilee night at the Opus club where he was going to see the show. He said that he was going to see the show. He said that he was going to see the show."

the people he talked. Witness expected Seymour to tell him to "shut up," he was asking no more questions.

"I knew the town was wide open and citizens knew it too. I knew the state of affairs was rotten and lots of others knew it too."

A bench warrant was issued for Robert Williams.

Williams Higgins said that Robert Williams offered him and P. T. Rutherford $100 if they would throw a prosecution against John Martin, or Jew John, for stealing from Rutherford. The arrangement was made at the Dominion club.

William Wheeler Called.

William Wheeler was next called.

Mr. Hagar: You understand that the evidence you give at this investigation will not be used against you in respect to subsequent proceedings? Witness: I do now.

Mr. Hagar: Except insofar as provided by the law, you understand that you have no objection to answer any questions which may be asked you?

Witness: Yes.

Run Rooming House.

Wheeler stated that he came to Edmonton about four years ago and was formerly bartender at the Yale hotel. He subsequently ran the Waverly rooming house, for Charles Lawyer and William Kelly.

Witness said he denied that he had any interest in the gambling place next to the Dominion club. As manager of the Dominion club he had no interest in the gambling place, for Charles Lawyer and William Kelly.

SUFFERED AGONY WITH NEURALGIA

Nothing Helped Her Until She Tried "Fruit-a-Lives"

CAMPBELLVILLE, ONT., May 25, 1913.

"I cannot speak too highly of 'Fruit-a-Lives'. For over thirty years, I have suffered from Chronic Neuralgia and Constipation, experiencing agonizing pain. The Neuralgia settled in my lungs and I took hold of every bottle of medicine without relief. The doctor told me I would not get better but 'Fruit-a-Lives' proved that the doctor was wrong, by giving me quick relief and finally and completely curing me."

I would not have my present health if it was not for 'Fruit-a-Lives' and I am glad of the opportunity of giving you this letter about such a splendid remedy as 'Fruit-a-Lives', for the guidance of other women who may be similarly afflicted."

Mrs. NATHAN DUNN.

"Fruit-a-Lives" is the only medicine made from fruit juices and is particularly suited to women because of its mild action and pleasant taste.

"Fruit-a-Lives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box. For $2.50, six boxes or may be obtained from Fruit-a-Lives Limited, Toronto.

Witness pulled off, although he got the blame for it.

Mr. Hagar: You stated to some one that you told the police you had stolen your diamonds and they had better arrest him?—Yes.

You said that you had been "official force" and that they had got you at the Yale hotel all crooks had come to you and got you to fix up their names?—I never made any remark like that.

You said that you thought it pretty mean of the police to have got you at the time you had been in Edmonton?—No.

And that you thought it pretty mean of the police to have got you at the time you had been in Edmonton?—No.

—No that is absolutely opposite to what I said. I have lots of other things to say these fellows I should get stuck up after doing what they were never mentioned.

Thought It Hard

You thought it pretty hard luck that you were down to see Mr. Lacey two or three times a week?—I might see him as often as that.

Generally at the police station?—Yes.

Sometimes at his house?—No.

Sometimes at the club?—I have seen him at the club four or five times.

You knew something of what the conditions were?—Yes.

You knew the policy?—Yes.

You knew he had authority to keep open the houses of prostitution?—Yes.

I know that they were being kept open. I understood that that was the policy.

Did you discuss the continuing of that policy with Mr. Lacey?—We never talked about it.

Try to remember the occasion?—I cannot remember the occasion. I don't think it with several other occasions. He would tell me at times, laughingly, that there was a house such and such a place and that they would have them all over the town if they did not do something.

How early did he begin to take that position?—It was in May.

Advance Information.

What other advice did you discuss?—That's about all.

You said you talked seven or eight times?—It was all about on the same line.

Why did you have any cause to raise your subject?—There was no reason why I should no more than anybody else.

It was when a great many people were coming to Mr. Lacey and said that this was the policy of the administration; you appear to have had advance information by about two months.

There was no cause for me talking about it.

At this point the court adjourned for lunch.

GENERAL SESSION
THIS AFTERNOON TO END AD CONVENTION

Toronto, Ont., June 25.—After their strenuous work of yesterday the majority of the Ad men loaded this morning. Only three sections held meetings. An interesting exhibit and one largely attached, was that of "Advertising Methods and Materials."

EDMONTON CONCERN SUPPLIES OIL DRILLING OUTFITS AND MATERIAL.

Canadian Equipment and Supply Company, Limited, 751 Ninth Street (109th).

Now that Edmonton promises to become, perhaps, the most important oil center of the province, a large amount of drilling may be expected to begin, and the city is bound to become a supply point for drillers and prospectors for oil.

The Canadian Equipment and Supply Company, limited, which has offices at 751 Ninth street, Edmonton, as well as in Calgary and Regina, announces that it handles the famous National driller. The name "National" has stood for oil ever since the days of Colonel Drake, who drilled the first well in 1859 at Titusville, Penn.

From that time, when oil drilling on this continent began, until the present.

when it has become an industry of such enormous importance, the history of oil is associated with the history of the National. Wherever men are boring for oil, no matter in what part of the world, there one can find the National at its allotted work—drilling, drilling, drilling.

There is National equipment to meet any condition. For drilling holes to a depth of 2500 feet, the National portable rig is recommended. It has practically displaced the old standard derrick and it carries a heavier load than probably any other rig made for similar service. For heavier work the Canadian Equipment and Supply Company have Standard rig derricks, of either wood or steel. For drilling in soft ground or in existing formation the National Hydraulic rotary rig is recommended. This will handle pipe up to 20 inches in diameter.

Concerns which contemplate development work or building of any description can now be accommodated in Edmonton and the Canadian Equipment and Supply Company is in a position to give as good, or better, service, than can be obtained any place in the west. In addition to providing outfits and material for oil drillers, this concern is in a position to give expert assistance in the working up of estimates and other details. A full line of builders' supplies is also carried.

AUSTRALIAN TENNIS TEAM AFTER DAVIS CUP

New York, June 25.—E. D. Wrenn, chairman of the Davis cup committee of management, received a letter yesterday from London, stating that the Australian tennis team would sail for this city on the Aquitania, on July 11.

A. E. Wilding, N. E. Brooks, E. E. Frost and A. W. Dunlop compose the team.

"Plans are being made to entertain the Australians at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, Long Island, before the men go to Chicago to meet the Canadians in the first of the international tennis matches."

Did you discuss the continuing of that policy with Mr. Lacey?—We never talked about it.

Rheims, France, June 25.—J. G. Medley, Swedish, Sillard Stankov, Hungary; Franz Reichel, France; Mr. Fisher, England; and James E. Sullivan, of the United States, were yesterday named as an international jury for the Olympic games to be held in Berlin in 1916. The international Olympic committee, made these appointments at a meeting held on the train which carried them to Rheims to attend a series of games given in honor by athletes here.

GREAT ATHABASCA OIL FIELD NOW CONTROLLED BY MOWBRAY-BERKELEY

With Cunningham Craig and Powerful British Syndicate Takes Over Athabasca Oils, Ltd.—Shares Hard to Get—Two Local Companies Have Property on Same Anticline.

Calgary, June 25.—Northern Alberta is entering strongly into competition with the Calgary district as a result of the news that the Athabasca Oils, Ltd., has been taken under control by the Mowbray-Berkeley syndicate. The scene of excitement is expected to shift any day now for it is recognized that Mowbray-Berkeley has strong British syndicate behind him with unlimited capital at his command. But, for more important, is the fact that Mr. Cunningham Craig, the world-famous geologist, who heretofore has only rented on properties has taken a hand in the oil producing game himself and after the most thorough examination of the field, has decided to throw his lot in with Mowbray-Berkeley and the great British interest. In a nutshell it means that the powerful combination of Mowbray-Berkeley and Cunningham Craig is resolved to operate the field. The announcement came like a thunderbolt from a blue sky and immediately the news circulated, brokers scrambled to the north, south, east and west, in search of holders of stock in the Athabasca Oils limited, investors who bought rather cheaply did not hesitate to part with their shares although there were a few who were shrewd enough to understand that there must be something at the back of it. Within a few hours Athabasca Oils limited was the sole target of conversation of the stock exchange men and the brokers. All who secured shares are holding on and that is probably the most significant development of the stock market since the 10 day boom.

Mowbray-Berkeley and Cunningham Craig are recognized as two of the leading figures in the Alberta oil world. Their sound judgment has won them a high reputation and they are certainly not taking it upon a chance in the Athabasca oil field. The Athabasca Oils limited is not a speculation. It is a sure thing. Four wells have been sunk on the property and all have produced oil. The wells are now capped waiting for a huge reservoir to be built when operations will again be resumed and it is almost certain that there will be a tremendous cash. Even if there is no cash, there will be a flowing well and thousands of barrels will be turned out every week.

Mowbray-Berkeley and Cunningham Craig will push forward the work with all possible speed as was manifested today when hurry-up calls were sent out to competent workmen to be ready to go on into the Athabasca country next week. More wells will be drilled and the reservoir work will be proceeded with all rapidity. Cunningham Craig will leave the Calgary field and supervise the work at Athabasca. The Berkeley-Craig interests form the largest link in the operations of the Alberta oilfield. To what extent development work will be completed is not known but that it will be extensive and in a few months the oil from the wells will be shipped to all parts of the world never for doubt. They are backed by the greatest of British financiers and have unlimited capital at their disposal. The man who made many million dollars in Mexico geologist, is believed to be the head of the syndicate. Dr. Flowerworth, an eminent geologist, was commissioned to go over the field a month ago and his report was a flow, thick and fast between Canada and England the sequel being that Mowbray-Berkeley and Cunningham Craig took up the controlling interest in the property. This means that the Athabasca Oils limited from now on is practically a closed corporation. The men behind the scheme have no money more that they need not appeal for public subscription for stock so that those who already hold shares will certainly reap huge rewards. Already they have four wells producing and more to be sunk so that the output from this property will be enormous. A railway is now in course of construction from Fort McMurray to Fort McKay and on the Moose anticline on both sides of the Athabasca river is situated the properties of the

W. L. Herron Closes Contract With California Concern for Quick Development.

LESSEES TO RECEIVE FIVE-SIXTHS PRODUCT

Oil Discovery Reported Near Regina—Many Claims Being Taken Up.

Calgary, June 25.—In order to encourage the rapid development of the most desirable sections of the oil fields, W. L. Herron yesterday closed a contract with a California concern by which he sub-leases to the Californians 60 acres of land. The lessees are to receive five-sixths of the oil or gas produced through their efforts. This arrangement is very important, inasmuch as it is the first contract under sub-lease that has been let in the district. Mr. Herron stated that he had entered upon an arrangement for the purpose of facilitating the quick development of the oil field. Judging by contracts already entered into, it is now certain that within the next three months no fewer than 40 high standard dry rigs will be in operation within a radius of two miles of the discovery well. Regina, June 25.—A report was brought into the city last night of a discovery of oil in southern Saskatchewan, in the Dirt Hills, about 11 miles from the town of Lang, and 18 miles from Regina. It is claimed that black sand was found 35 feet down and oil after a much excellent prevails in filling claims all round the section.

MARITIME PETROLEUM SALES OFFICE AT 114 JASPER AVENUE EAST

There was an increased demand for stock in the Maritime Petroleum company yesterday when it was announced in the Capital that the company was about to start drilling between Welsford and the station government. The development work has yet been done, but in which experts who have looked at the field, have the indications are better than any other, particularly since the Monarch strike. Prospective shareholders wished to make purchases of the stock at the opening price of 25 cents, but went to 114 Jasper east, which was the address published, when the correct address of the sales office is 114 Jasper east, or just across the street. The head office of the company is at 2121 Victoria block, and the special 25-cent issue, it is announced, will be sold at the head office and at the new sales office, 114 Jasper east.

The Maritime Petroleum company is headed by men of known standing and integrity, and its holdings are owned outright, not by lease from the Dominion government. This will make it unnecessary to pay any rentals whatever for the land, as most companies do. Part of the drilling machinery is now on the ground, and the balance is on the way. The directors announce that work will commence in a few days, possibly by Saturday.

BURY SAYS CROP PROSPECTS WERE NEVER LIKE THIS

Canadian Pacific Each Year Improves Facilities for Handling of Grain.

NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT COMPANY'S OIL LANDS

Building Program to Be Announced in Fall, When Present Work Finished.

Saskatoon, June 25.—George Bury, vice-president of the C.P.R., spent the night in Saskatoon, and to the W.A. P. stated that he had never before seen the crops in such a promising condition. The exception of a few scattered places the stand in all grains was uniformly excellent.

Asked if the company was in a position to handle the crop this fall he stated that every year it was improving and that last year there were few complaints about the movement. This year he expected the company would be able to do its share. He would say nothing regarding the intentions of the C.P.R., respecting development work on the Calgary oil fields.

You must ask the president about that. He said that the company was building a program, he said, would be announced in the fall and added that the company was now working on 600 miles of unfinished work to complete which will be finished this fall. The lines under construction and projected are those that will be of the greatest benefit to the country, as a whole, he said.

WILSON TO RECEIVE STRONG DEPUTATION OF SUFFRAGETTES

Wiley. They will press for his support to an agreement for sale of the south east quarter of section 36, township 13, range 25, west of the fourth meridian, the total purchase price being $60,000. The defence was set up that no default had been made and that plaintiff was in a position to deliver title in any event.

AIR CRAFT ACT AS GUARD OF HONOR AT AUSTRIAN FUNERAL

Vienna, June 25.—An escort of twenty aeroplanes flying in formation and manned by aviators from several nations formed a flying guard of honor at the burial yesterday of the Austrian officers and men killed in the tragic air catastrophe a few miles from Vienna, on Saturday. The presence of this aerial fleet created a vivid impression. An enormous crowd of people, including members of several nations' cabinets and foreign military attaches, was present at the graveside to testify the general sorrow felt for the aviators who had died doing their duty during the army maneuvers. While the funeral service was in progress the small air craft circled round and round the cemetery and then flew off in company.

Charged With Forgery

Winnipeg, June 25.—Richard Harrison, banker of Carberry, was yesterday committed for trial at Portage la Prairie on three charges of forgery. Harrison is accused of having obtained a fictitious name to notes which he passed through his bank, obtaining cash upon them to the amount of $1,057.

Nerves Were So Bad THOUGHT SHE WOULD GO OUT OF HER MIND.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected. Many women become run down and worn out by household cares and duties never ending, and sooner or later let themselves go with the nerves shattered, and the heart action weakened. On the first sign of any weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy, or physical break down, wait until your case becomes hopeless. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system. Mrs. Archie Goodwin, Tully, N.S., writes: "When I was troubled with my heart two years ago, I was very bad. My nerves were so shattered that sometimes I almost went out of my mind. I doctored myself with everything I could get at last I got four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and they have cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this wonderful remedy, and will recommend it to all sufferers." Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all druggists, or mailed direct to the Editor by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PANTAGES NEXT WEEK WILL EXHIBIT REAL SHOW OF WILD WEST

Among the many vaudeville announcements for next week, the one that is just one act whose bare mention gives a breath-taking feeling of suspense, Lucille Mulhall, who won the world's championship in the steer roping contest of the Winnipeg stampede last year, will put 30 minutes of the wildest kind of wild west on the vaudeville stage at the Pantages theater next week.

Here is a bare list of what Miss Mulhall brings with her—better than the most vivid description to permit the imagination to try to figure just what is liable or not liable to happen when the curtain goes up on Lucille Mulhall's act any day next week. To begin with there are seven people, two bucking horse ropers, one champion woman rider, one champion western roper, two cowboy assistants and one rough and tumble comedian, seven head of horses, five of which are gentle bucking horses of the range, used only in alternate performances, besides Miss Mulhall's own famous saddle, one pony and one genuine long-horned Texas steer.

Miss Mulhall is America's greatest horse woman. There is no one in the north-west who does not know of her and of her ability since the Winnipeg stampede of last year, in which event, Miss Mulhall won the distinction besides carrying away the honors of the entire tournament by successfully lassoing, throwing, and hog-tying a steer in 23.45 seconds, which performance won her the world's championship belt and a $100 cash prize. The horses, men and women of her company are the genuine product of the western range.

The outlaw bucking horses are wild and untamable, genuine wild-eyed beasts of the corral. The long-horned steer brought on the stage to put a vicious touch to her act and upon which Miss Mulhall demonstrated her roping ability is one of the famous few left of that breed which generations ago made the fame of the historic Santa Fe trail. The horse Mulhall rides is one of the famous range animals of this country.

DELIGHTFUL MIDWEEK PROGRAM IS OFFERED AT THE BIJOU THEATER

A delightful mid-week program is being offered at this popular theater, replete with amusement of the highest class.

"Our Mutual Girl," handles another thrilling situation with rare cleverness and appears in one of her best presentations. While at the fashion show, in item numbers, she has her finger, decides that she cannot accept Margaret's generosity and while planning her next move, meets her former dance hall sweetheart, who persuades her to go back to the east side. While returning home Margaret saves Ada's brother from police, who are about to arrest him for theft. Upon reaching home and finding Ada missing and the advice of Ada's brother as to who he suspects, she is about to go at once in search of her protégée. After a scene with her aunt, who endeavours to stop her from going, Margaret finally steals from the house unknown to all, and starts on her perilous search.

The Frank Morton company present another sure fire hit entitled "The Ninth Hour," full of the most daring and exciting scenes. Miss Gladys Vaughan and Jack Fleming vie for the vocal honors, each scoring an unequalled success.

"Her Fighting Chance," a two-act drama of unusual interest, is presented by the favorite American players, with Miss Winnifred Greenwood and Ed. Cross in the title roles. Sacrificing in the name of love, a man of fiction writer, Neil Dare reveals a latent talent in Mrs. Corbin, which suggests the love of the French between a husband and wife, who are on the verge of absolute separation. Fully satisfied with her work, Neil, in an intensely pathetic scene, leaves for another field where she will not be reminded of the sacrifice which has cost her so dearly.

Sherman's decided statement as to the description of war is fully substantiated by a visit to the Empress theater, where for the last time the Mexican war pictures will be shown today. Nothing seems to have been spared in getting the best and most accurate pictures which could be obtained, and in many instances these were taken under the most dangerous circumstances. The engagement of the skirmishers at the battle of Ojinaga is one of the best scenes filmed and shows the fighting forces in their deadly conflict. With the bullets finding their mark in numerous instances, the picture offers some highly sensational scenes. The camera man seemed to be over anxious to be in the thick of the conflict and the pictures of the firing line, the trenches with their dead and dying, the actual battle with the smoke being carried from the field, the Red Cross at work patching up some fearfully wounded soldiers, makes a series of thrilling scenes.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

POLLY: I use a plain quinine tonic to give my scalp the health that insures hair-beauty. This tonic is particularly helpful in pouring 1 ounce quinine into 4 pint alcohol, then adding 4 pint water. Rub a little into your scalp twice a week for a time and all dandruff, hair falling and excess oil will disappear. I find this quinine tonic cannot be equalled for restoring the silky softness and rich, even color to brittle faded hair, and its regular use will encourage a long luxurious growth.

MRS. O.B.: Your surplus weight can be safely reduced with no ill effects by the simple treatment, which costs little and can be made at home. Into 14 pint hot water put 4 ounces quinine. Strain when cool and take a tablespoonful before meals. This dissolves fat rapidly without dieting or unusual exertion. The quinine treatment also leaves the flesh firm and the skin free from wrinkles.

GLADYS: Instead of pore-clogging powder I use a plain spumox tonic, because one application is sufficient for an entire day or evening. This lotion adheres so closely to the skin that it seems part of it, so cannot be detected, and it gives it a very velvety texture. To prepare, put 2 ounces spumox into 4 pint hot water or witch hazel and add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. The use of this lotion banishes pimples, blackheads, blotches and sallowness. It is particularly good for tan, freckles and oiliness of the skin.

MISS E.: For a small sum you can make a full quart of the very best blood-purifier and system builder. Dissolve 1 ounce karsidine in 4 pint alcohol (not whiskey), then add 4 cupful sugar and 1 pint water to make a full quart. Take a tablespoonful before meals. This ride the skin of pimples, blotches and "mudiness" and restores to the complexion the glow of youthful health. This karsidine tonic is particularly recommended for kidney and bladder troubles and for rheumatic or gouty conditions, because it gently eliminates these poisons from the system and restores the sufferer to complete health.

MISS A.: I have made my face look years younger by using this wrinkle-removing cream-jelly, which I make at home by putting 4 tablespoonfuls glycerine into 4 pint cold water and stirring in 1 ounce almond oil, after which I let stand several hours before using. I apply the cream-jelly thickly on retiring and in the morning wash off, dry the skin and use more cream as a massage. This treatment rapidly eliminates wrinkles and lines and restores the clear, soft, velvety smoothness to the skin and dispels the "muddy" shiny look.

BRIGHT EYES: Replying to your second letter, just dissolve 1 ounce crystals in a pint clear water and you will have the best eye to clear the hair is to just dissolve a teaspoonful of anthrax, which you can get in any drug store, in a cup of hot water. This makes a ready shampoo that cleanses and invigorates the scalp and restores health and beauty to dull, straggly hair. You will find certain shampoos are especially fine for faded or brittle hair, and occasionally shampooing in this manner makes the hair soft, fluffy, and induces a beautiful growth.

NANCY: For a long time I have chased the best way to clean the hair is to just dissolve a teaspoonful of anthrax, which you can get in any drug store, in a cup of hot water. REFORM NEEDED IN ELECTORAL CAMPAIGNING.

The investigation which is now being held in New Brunswick into the system of systematized extortion, which is alleged to have been practiced by government officials or their agents, brings to the fore once again the crying need for reform in electoral campaigning. The ugly fact that people and companies are held up for money which is supposed to be used for getting governments into power, whether the intelligent and unpurchasable voters are in favor of it or not, bobs up once again in the quagmire of political corruption. Of course, those who have any knowledge whatever of politics and how it is played, know that it goes on all the time. In this instance the fact is merely paraded through the streets so everybody can see it.

The leader of the liberal opposition in the New Brunswick case charged Premier Fleming with having personal knowledge and conniving at the practice. According to the evidence brought out so far, it seems that there was a regular charge of so much a mile to be paid by those who had timber limit leases or privileges to whomsoever happened to be assigned to collect the "slush fund" for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the provincial campaign for the conservative party. In other words, if reason, logic or argument could not win over sufficient votes to elect the government's supporters, enough money had to be collected to do so. And the government, having the power to put nasty little things in the way of lumbermen if they did not "come through," merely delegated some agents to get said money.

The general impression is that any large interest which is likely to gain a great deal, or lose a great deal, by having certain legislation enacted or defeated, always takes an active interest in political campaigns to see that this or that man or this or that party is elected or defeated, as the case may be.

There is also a very general impression in the west that the present minister of public works, particularly Hon. Robert Rogers, is a past master at this game of electioneering, so much so that he has been called the minister of elections. The wholesale manner in which servants of the government in the department of the interior, of which he was formerly the head, and in other departments, has not done much to dispel this idea. Public servants put in their positions by the present dominion government come out openly at elections and practically offer petty bribes to the voters. The people of Alberta and Saskatchewan have said, through their ballots, in no uncertain terms what they think of these practices. The people of Manitoba will have a chance on July 10 to do the same. Ontario voted strongly the way the big interests wanted it to on September 21, 1911, and it may be that the events which have since transpired may have shown enough about "letting well enough alone" and other conservative brands of statesmanship that Sir James Whitney's government may get a rude shock next Monday.

Of course, in the last analysis an educated public is the only effective stop for political corruption. If Manitoba, particularly, condones such action, as it apparently has before, its people cannot expect anything better, no matter what laws are passed regarding compulsory publicity for campaign expenses and other palliatives.

HELPING THE YOUNG BRITON.

Great Britain continues to be the home of the forward movement, notwithstanding the impression which obtains in some quarters that the old land is composed chiefly of conservatives and standpaters. The action of a wealthy Englishman in starting a Boys of the Empire fund with a quarter of a million dollars is worthy of note. This donor's idea is that the nation of tomorrow depends upon the boy of today. No matter what good fortune or prosperity shall have in store for the British Empire in a material way, its decline is certain unless the future citizens, now in swaddling clothes and knickerbockers, shall develop into zealous patriots,—morally, mentally and physically creditable to the Union Jack.

The new organization will have a military flavor, more to inculcate discipline, regular habits and deportment than to emphasize warlike tactics. The Boy Scouts under Sir Robert Baden Powell have already exerted a remarkable influence for good in the British Isles. Another scheme of juvenile improvement on an elaborate scale is by no means a superfluity. Had there been more of these efficient methods of boy culture a generation ago, there would be fewer "down and outs" today, and less need of asylums and penitentiaries.

Sir Robert Lucas-Tooth, the generous giver of this gift, which inaugurates a fund that should rapidly grow into the millions, lived many years in Australia where the system of cadet training has produced magnificent results in developing the youth of the land. He is hopeful that, in this particular matter, the example set by the progressive colony will be followed by the Mother Country. He aims at the extension of the good work being done by boy scouts and cadets, and his prime object is the making of the ideal citizen. The latter will be better fitted to perform his work in the world as a father of a family, voter and subject of the king. And if ever the call should come summoning him to bear arms in defence of the fatherland, he will be better able to do that, too.

The Adventures
of Kathlyn

By Harold MacGrath.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS CHAPTERS.

Kathlyn Hare, believing her father, Col. Hare, in peril, has summoned her. Leaving her home in California to go to him in Alaska, she has been delayed by the loss of the ship that was to take her to the north. She has been delayed by the loss of the ship that was to take her to the north. She has been delayed by the loss of the ship that was to take her to the north.

When Kathlyn returns, at the expiration of the week of grace, her refusal to marry Umbalash she receives notice from the supreme tribunal that she is to undergo two ordeals with wild beasts. If she survives she is to be permitted to rule without hindrance in the north.

Through the pluck and resourcefulness of John Bruce, an American and fellow passenger on the boat which brought Kathlyn to Alaska, and who has come to her assistance, the natives are warned of the two ordeals. With Bruce she flees from Alaska. The orphan which carries her becomes frightened and runs away, separating her from Bruce and the rest of the party.

After a ride filled with peril she takes refuge in a ruined temple. The holy man who lives there, intending to let her escape, promises her that he will let her escape, but she is forced to flee from it with the heavy load in pursuit. She escapes and finds a retreat in the forest, only to fall into the hands of a band of slave traders, who bring her to Umbalash, who, finding her still unacquainted, throws her into the dungeon with her father.

Bruce and his friends effect the release of Kathlyn and the colonel. Umbalash's attempt to escape is unsuccessful, and the fugitives are given shelter in the Palace of the Sun. Kathlyn and Bruce are placed in the hands of the natives, who are to be sacrificed to the gods.

Assured with caution and servants that they would be safe, the party endeavors to reach the coast, but are overtaken by a band of brigands, and the encounter results in the colonel being delivered to Umbalash. Kathlyn and Bruce escape from their captives and return to the north. Kathlyn learns that her father, while nominally alive, is in fact dead. She is arranged to be a bride for him. "Candidly," she says, "I am not at all sure that I am not a bride for him. I am not at all sure that I am not a bride for him. I am not at all sure that I am not a bride for him."

"Good!" he murmured, under his breath. "Nothing better could happen. He is a man, and a tried one, I know. Good! If once we get clear of this hell, I shall not stand in their way, Winnie, Winnie! What in God's name will that kitten be doing all these terrible weeks? Will she try to find us? The first telephone office we reach I must cable her under no circumstances to stir from her home, if I may," he said, aloud, "how far are we from the nearest telephone office?"

"Three days, Baidoo," he said, "if we are to go by the shortest route."

"Shall we be obliged to stop at the rate to change our mounts?"

"No, Sahib; only to take supplies enough to last us."

"Loss as little time as you can. Now drop the curtains, Bruce."

So through the streets they hurried unmolested. Those who saw the curbed howdah took it for granted that some unsuccessful candidate was returning to his home.

It was well for Kathlyn that she had made up her mind to leap for the vines at the moment she did. For the elephants had not left the first turn in the street, when the howdah and the elephant came running pell-mell into the street with ropes and ladders, prepared for the capture of the treasury leopard, which, of course, were looked upon as sacred.

At the ancient gate the fugitives paused for the supplies awaiting them. Ahmed was not known to the guards there; that was good fortune. In the dialect he talked with them, Ahmed was comfortably straddled back of a elephant's ears and was leaning along the road.

"The king," shouted the surprised mahout to the guards, who had not seen the man or the turban.

"What king, fool?" returned the guards.

"The white king who was betrothed this day!" All I have seen the royal turban. It is he!"

The guards decided him. So, finding no hope in them, he ran to his elephant, mounted and rode back into town. Durgu Ram would pay well for this news.

"Father," said Kathlyn reproachfully, "that mahout recognised you. I warned you not to move the curtains." Bruce shrugged.

"But, Kit," returned her father, "Ahmed was so infernally slow! He could spend time in clattering to the guards."

Ahmed heard, but said nothing. "Never mind," interrupted Bruce. "At any rate we shall have the advantage of a couple of hours, and Umbalash will not catch us with the elephants he has at hand. By the time he starts his expedition we shall be thirty miles away. Let us be cheerful!"

(To be continued tomorrow.)

IN THE PARLOR CAR
Railway and Shipping News

Under the time tables adopted recently by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway, no less than 163 passenger trains have been discontinued, thereby effecting a saving to the railway company of 3,350 train miles a day. It was found that the trains cut out were earning less than 50 cents a mile each. The Philadelphia and Reading road has also discontinued a number of short trip passenger trains, and, moreover, are taking that method of trying to break even—or make profits—on watered stock, as the case may be. And this at a time when all the railways running into Edmonton are putting on more trains and opening up new branches. Has Alberta, with all its prospects, crop prospects, mined farming on the increase, and increased railway facilities, reasons to be optimistic?

While the vast enterprises of double tracking the entire C.P.R. system is one that cannot in the nature of the case, be fully realized for years, yet when it is stated that there will be shortly 1,000 miles of double track between Port Arthur and Calgary, leaving gaps of only something like 145 miles—one gets a realising notion of the work involved, of the great distance covered and of the courage and persistence involved in this large and notable undertaking of duplicating the whole system, which comprises some 1,800 miles of track. Of course the chief consideration is the west, whose rapid development called for this new policy; but the east will be similarly treated in time, especially the lines which connect large centres of population, and promise bigger business. The cost will be so enormous as to leave exact figures at the moment; the double tracking, too, will be built in a vastly different way from the original railway, which was put through in a tremendous hurry, coerced, as one might say, by political considerations, and which was only required at the time, to show the two steel bands, however weak, under the bridge underneath them. So defective was the original building that many millions had to be spent in reinforcement, but the present double tracking will offer a finished railway, in every respect, both as regards the weight of rails, the strength of bridges, and the perfection of roadbed. Thus applied, the new policy will work out for immediate return, through the added business the double tracked system can attend to.

The new train service in the C.P.R. between Montreal, Toronto and Chicago, linked up with the Michigan Central, has proved a great success. New business has been created, a quickened interest has been felt, owing, doubtless, to the saving in time made by the new arrangement with the Michigan Central. C.P.R. passenger agents in Edmonton and elsewhere report many enquiries, while the trains themselves are filled as they leave the terminal stations. The new line has been a good one from the point of view of increased trade. June 19 is the date fixed by the C.P.R. for the opening of passenger traffic on the new line above line, which gives a virtually alternative route between Montreal and Toronto.

WILSON HAS MADE U.S. A DERISION, SAYS ROOSEVELT

"COLOMBIAN TREATY CAPS THE CLIMAX"

"Canal Would Have Still Been in Dim Future Under Wilson's Policy."

New York, June 25.—In a lengthy statement issued last night by Col. Roosevelt, on his arrival from Europe on the Imperator, the former president declared that the payment of $25,000,000 to Colombia for having secured the right to build the Panama canal as provided for in the pending treaty, would be merely the payment of belated blackmail.

If the proposed treaty is right, he said, the presence of the United States in Panama is wrong and Panama should, therefore, be restored to Colombia and the United States should abandon the zone. In the statement Col. Roosevelt said in part:

"The payment of $25,000,000 to Colombia together with the expression of what is in effect an apology for our having secured the right to build the Panama canal, is merely the belated payment of blackmail with an apology to the blackmailers. If this proposed treaty submitted by President Wilson is right, then our presence on the isthmus is wrong. In such case, Panama should at once be restored to Colombia and we should stop work on the canal and abandon the place bag and baggage. There should be no half-way measures. If we as a nation have been guilty of theft, we should restore the stolen goods. If we have not been guilty of theft, we should not pay blackmail."

The handling of our foreign affairs by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan has been such as to make the United States a figure of fun in the international world. This proposed Colombian treaty caps the climax, and it ratified will rightly render us an object of contemptuous derision to every great nation. In view of its submission to the congress, I wish to call attention to exactly what was done under my administration because of the action of that administration the people of the United States acquired what they could by no other means have acquired, the right to build the Panama canal. In 1902 it was still doubtful whether we would adopt the Nicaragua or the Panama route. The government of Colombia was exceedingly anxious that we should adopt the latter, and arranged a treaty with United States in order to prevent our going to Nicaragua. We acted in good faith and the course of action we thereby entered upon was conditioned upon their proposal, their promise. It was our right and also our duty to our own people and to the rest of the world to exact the performance of this promise.

"For 400 years there had been conversation about the need of the Panama canal. The time for further conversation had passed the time to translate words into deeds had come. If I had followed President Wilson's policy of 'watchful waiting' it would have insured half a century of additional conversation and the canal would still be in the dim future. And it is only because the then administration acted precisely as it did act that we now have the Panama canal."

AMENDING BILL FOR ULSER MORE LIBERAL THAN FIRST INFERRED

London, June 25.—The Irish amending bill, which has now been passed, shows that the government propose to be rather more generous than might have been first inferred from Lord Crewe's statement. This refers to a provision of the first clause which says that if within three months after the date of the passing of the act a petition is presented to the lord lieutenant from any county in Ulster, the lord lieutenant is satisfied that the petition is signed by not less than one-tenth of the parliamentary electors in that county, he shall cause a poll to be taken.

LOS ANGELES AD CLUB TAKES CUP FOR EFFICIENCY

Edmonton and El Paso Lose Out Despite Fine Oratorical Work.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES EXECUTIVE

Kalamazoo Will Offer Trophy for Cities of 50,000 or Less.

Toronto, June 25.—"The standards of practice" covering fifteen departments, were yesterday adopted and made operative by the convention of the Associated Ad clubs. The departmental meetings in the morning were all well attended. A general session was held in the afternoon, when the chairman announced the personnel of the new national executive, chosen by the nominating committee.

The announcement was also made of the selection of Chicago as the place for the next convention. The recommendation of the committee will come before the convention for ratification today.

Despite the fine oratory of R. A. Sherman for El Paso, Tex., and W. A. Mine for Edmonton, the Printers' Ink cup, for ad club efficiency, was awarded to the Los Angeles club. President Wilson of that club, in receiving it, declared that he would rather take back the cup than the convention for 1915 or the $1,000 essay prize.

A special cup for proficiency in oratory was, however, awarded to Mr. Sherman.

The following were nominated by the national convention to serve on the new executive:

E. T. Meredith, Iowa; W. C. D'Arcy, Missouri; T. H. Gerlach, Illinois; H. S. Houston, New York; and W. F. Lee, Connecticut.

The following were nominated by the local committee, and will be brought before the convention today for ratification:

A. E. Chamberlain, Illinois; P. H. Row, Toronto; A. L. Schuman, Texas; J. Benfrew, California; and E. J. Shay, Baltimore.

It was announced that Kalamazoo, Mich., will present a trophy for competition by cities with a population of 50,000 and under, for the most effective work in the development of the work undertaken by the Ad clubs.

LONDON ENFETE FOR QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S ROSE DAY FESTIVAL

London, June 25.—The Queen Alexandra rose day has grown in two or three years into one of London's greatest annual functions. Wednesday the fete, recognizing the occasion, blessed it with ideal weather and London's miles of streets were patrolled and gladdened by 10,000 young women in white frocks, making the gray old city look positively bridal.

Queen Alexandra, who was present with a bouquet of roses as soon as she awoke, made a tour of the streets in the afternoon and a rear of cheering followed her all around London as she drove slowly via Oxford street to the city and by way of the Strand back to Marlborough house.

The Prince of Wales and Prince Albert paid 10 shillings each for roses during their early morning walk along Piccadilly.

At Twickenham an enterprising collector saw ex-King Manuel approaching in an automobile and ran into the road waving a box.

Manuel ordered the car to stop and dropped a sovereign into the young woman's collection box.

U.S. SALE WARSHIPS TO GREECE BETTERS CHANCES FOR PEACE

London, June 25.—Fear of war between Greece and Turkey is receding; Greece yesterday communicating a new note to the powers accepting the port's proposals that the property of Turkish refugees shall be exchanged for the property of Greek refugees, and that a Graco-Turkish commission be appointed to make a valuation of the properties. Greece invited the powers to designate a neutral chairman of the commission.

An Athens despatch to the Daily Telegraph says that the United States congress, by authorizing the sale of the warships to Greece, has averted an immediate declaration of war, and that the prospects for peace have been greatly improved.

Fighting continues in Albania and the Muslem insurgents, according to late advices, have captured Berat, thirty miles northeast of Avlona, and one other small town.

Malta, June 25.—The Greek consul here yesterday issued a notification to Greek naval reservists residents or employed in Malta that the Greek government had ordered five classes of the reservists to return to Greece by Saturday.

Parliament Buildings Threatened

Ottawa, June 25.—The parliament buildings were threatened with destruction by fire yesterday when a gas stove used by a plumber in the basement of one of the buildings exploded, starting a considerable blaze. The fire was extinguished in a few minutes, but not before it had caused a great commotion among the officials responsible for the safety of the parliamentary records.

ANOTHER STEP TO FORMATION NAVAL MILITIA IS TAKEN

Fisheries Are Placed Under Control of Naval Affairs Department.

NEW ARRANGEMENT GOES INTO EFFECT NEXT WEEK

Believed Will Promote Efficiency and Abolish Confusion and Delay.

Ottawa, June 25.—It is stated that the action of the government in transferring the fisheries department to the control of the deputy minister for naval affairs is another step by the government toward the development of the proposed naval militia force. It is planned to have this force recruited largely from among the fishermen population of the two Canadian coasts and the Great Lakes. It has been thought desirable to put the man who is to organize the militia as closely as possible into touch with the hundred thousand Canadian fishermen. Therefore, it is proposed to give Mr. Desbarats, the naval deputy, the control of all fishery matters. Hereafter it is from this office that regulations concerning the taking of fish will go. He will send out the instructions to improve methods of fish packing.

The fishery protective cruisers have been under the direction of the naval service department ever since that branch was created. The fact that the protection was under the naval deputy and the administration of the fisheries under the marine and fisheries' deputy has led to confusion and delay.

The new arrangement, which will take effect next week, is expected not only to promote the organization of the naval militia, but to improve the efficiency of administration of the fisheries branches.

Three splendid specimens of this year's grain are now in the hands of J. L. Porte, agricultural assistant to the industrial commissioner and may be seen in the industrial chambers, Civic building. One of barley, and another of oats, measure 36 inches and 28 inches respectively. Both these samples were sown on April 28 last by T. W. Tracey of Fort Saskatchewan. Mr. Porte has also a sample of broomrape on exhibition which measures 56 inches. Considering the earliness of the season, the growth shown is an exceptional one for this time of the year and augurs well for crop prospects.

BRONKS WON TWO GAMES YESTERDAY ESKIMOS AGAIN IN CELLAR POSITION

SPORTS

Sport Phone 1166.

Edited by Cliff Dunham.

BRONKS ARE TWICE WINNERS OVER ESKIMOS: 6-4 AND 3-1

Umpire's Judgment of Foul Fly Lost Home Team Malinee Contest—Russell Was Wild, and Gage Saved the Day—Pitcher Dave Gregg Worked Fine Game in Evening, But Later, Threw It Away—Double-Header Today.

The Eskimos were very much at home to the visiting Bronks yesterday and allowed them to carry away the long end of two games. The first by a 6 to 4 score and the second 3 to 1. All the same of which was some reversal of form as so recently displayed in Calgary, where the Eskimos more than held their own way. James Fleming, president of the Western Canada League was present in the stand and witnessed the return of the home team to the cellar.

Afternoon Game.
The matinee contest might just as well have been credited to the Eskimos, but Reams' long fly over the left field fence, in the ninth, with two down, counted as a home run and scored two runs and put the game in the ice box. There were not ten people inside the ball park inclosure who were not willing to swear that the ball was too feet on the foul side of the white flag, but Umpire Colgate, not being quite on a line with the hit, judged that it was fair. Umpire also came in for several other kicks from either team, but such is the life of an umpire.

Russell Was Wild.
Lefty Russell, who started on the mound for the visitors, and who was so recently has been garbed in an Eskimo uniform, was wild as a hawk, and lashed but three and a half runs, after passing six men, allowing three hits and four runs. He was boosted in favor of Gage, who stepped up and held the locals tight after. In fact, he was, with Reams and Colgate, largely responsible for the Broncho victory. Stallop, who was the choice of Manager Nordyke, was not on to any great extent, and was found altogether for ten innings, when a derelict might have been used upon him to good advantage at the opportune moment in the seventh, when the Bronks were beginning to feel him out.

Score Was Tie.
Two hits in the second inning gave the visitors their first run, and they added another pair in the third from a single and double. The Eskimos trusted along and grabbed two in the second from a hit and an error, and two more in the fourth from a couple of singles. This ended their scoring, however, and the Bronks collected another in the seventh and tied the score. Stallop was weakening and Piper, Strieb and Devereaux landed on him for sure-enough hits.

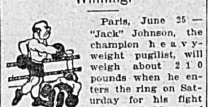

Two Feet Foul.
Things jogged along nicely until the ninth. With two men down, Reams stepped into a high one and slammed it toward the flag on the left fence, and it went clear over. The hit was foul by two feet but Umpire Colgate called it a safe hit. Reams completed the circuit on it and chased Strieb ahead of him. This was a glorious ending to Reams' good day, as he produced a single, a double and a homer in the times up. A good one hand catch by Matt and a few freak ups and down around the diamond, helped to pass the two hours and 20 minutes away. Final score 6 to 4.

Evening Game.
The twilight contest started like a house afire. Dave Gregg was on the mound by way of introduction to the local fans, and started out with burn things up. For six innings he worked like a horse and had the Bronks at his mercy, whiffing the air and doing little else than walking up to the plate and back again. Gregg worked a cross-fire that had the visitors standing away from the plate.

Well this was alright as far as it went, and especially when the Eskimos had grabbed one lone run in the fifth and looked like holding that lead. But you never can tell, and things happened so thick and fast in the seventh, that when the smoke had cleared, the Bronks had scored three runs and won the old. As an error made by this same fine pitcher Gregg. It was one lone inning all through. Gregg started off hitting Piper, first man up. Then

JACK JOHNSON'S BETTING FAVORITE SATURDAY'S BOUT

Will Weigh in at About 210 Pounds and is Confident of Winning.

Paris, June 25—“Jack” Johnson, the champion, has a very weight, pugilist, will weigh about 210 pounds when he enters the ring on Saturday for his fight with Frank Moran of Pittsburg. This means that he will be about 10 pounds heavier than when he fought Jim Jeffries at Reno, on July 4, 1910.

Since Johnson began training he has lost 25 or 30 pounds in weight. He will continue his hard work until Friday. Johnson says he is still looking for a taker of a bet of $5,000, which he wants to wager on himself.

The odds in the fight range from 5 to 1 down to 1 in favor of Johnson. Moran, at his training quarters at Merlet-sur-Clare, a few miles outside of Paris, asserts that he is sure he will defeat Johnson.

Both men, through the customary exercises yesterday, covering several miles on the road and engaging in bouts with their training partners. Moran had bouts with Tom Kennedy and Willie Lewis. In addition to his punching Moran has received few visitors. While Johnson, who has been doing a large part of his training in public, is an object of interest to considerable crowds daily.

WINNER OF KING'S PLATE WILL RACE LATE THIS MONTH

Toronto, June 25.—It will be gratifying to the many friends of Harry Giddings and turf enthusiasts throughout the country to know that the King's Plate winner, Bessie, has fully recovered from his recent attack of fever at Blue Bonnets. The good colt will not again be seen under colors, however, before the Hamilton meeting, which commences soon, and he will be unseaten in nine starts during his racing career.

WINNIPEG CREW MAKE FAST TIME

In Trial Over Henley Course, Make Better Time Than Argonauts.

Henley-on-Thames, June 25.—Bearing upon Winnipeg's chances for the grand challenge cup, a significant change has been made in the order of the crew. R. C. Bourne, the well-known Oxford oarsman, having been dropped from stroke in favor of Dr. J. Day, who rowed bow for Cambridge in the “Varsity” boat race.

The Canadians received their fastest time last evening in a full course row, leaving the half-way mark in 3 minutes 15 seconds. They pushed on vigorously to the winning post, which they reached in 7 minutes 14 seconds, which is rather better than the Argonauts' fastest practice trial last year.

The crews were out this morning, detail work being supplemented by a good two minute row.

Shamrock Inv. Altered.
Southampton, Eng., June 25.—Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, challenger for the America cup, is being ship-rigged again, but retains the longer bowsprit and will have a bigger single head sail than before. Whether this change will be permanent depends upon the result of further trials of the challenger with the other Shamrock.

Northwestern League.
All games postponed.

MAROONS LOSE TO WINONA SIX-FIVE

Leaders in Northern League Gradually Slide Downwards.

Winona, June 25.—Winona grabbed the final game with the Maroons here last night, and thereby succeeded in making an even break in the four game series. The score was 5 to 6, and the game was an up-hill battle for the sixth and saved the game.

After spotting the visitors five runs in the second when they knocked House out of the box, the first players came back and piled up four runs in the sixth, just one short of their opponents, but a lucky home by Fauch gave the Pirates the odd run, his hit going through Calhoun. A great catch by Davey robbed Fauch of a home run and Winnipeg the game, in the seventh, as there was a man on the bases then. Myers replaced Keller in the sixth and saved the game.

WALTER JOHNSON
FAMOUS PITCHER
JOINS BENEDICTS

Washington, June 25.—Walter Johnson, famous pitcher of the Washington American league baseball team, and Miss Hazel Lee Roberts, daughter of Representative J. E. Roberts, of Nevada, were quietly married here last night at the home of the bride's parents.

Only the members of the Robert family witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Frettingham, chaplain of the United States senate.

The pitcher and his bride will not have their honeymoon until after the end of the baseball season.

Miss Roberts and her mother saw Johnson, with his way to victory against the world's champion Athletics yesterday afternoon.

The bride came to Washington three years ago, when her father was elected to the sixty-second congress.

Johnson, though a veteran in the baseball world, is only 26 years old. His home is in Coffeyville, Kansas, where he owns a ranch.

OLD COUNTRY CRICKET

London, June 25.—The M.C.C. team, which recently toured South Africa, played against a team of picked men from the rest of England at Lords yesterday, and were badly beaten by a complete innings and 180 runs. The high scorers were Humphreys of the picked team, who made 75, and Rhodes, of M.C.C., who made 62.

Hamphire beat Sussex by two wickets. The match between Yorkshire and Leicester ended in a draw. The high scorers were Wilson for Yorkshire, who made 55, and Whitehead of Leicester, who knocked up 66.

Worcester beat Gloucester by 180 runs.

RED SOX LOSE TO HATTERS 7 TO 2

Martin Held Regina to Seven Scattered Hits and Tight in Pinches.

Regina, June 25.—Medicine Hat took the third game of the series here last night, defeating the Red Sox by a score of 7 to 2. Last night was not a good one for pitchers, both being hit freely at times. Martin of the Hatters, however, was able to hold the Red Sox down when his meat runs, having seven strike-outs to his credit. Horatio, unlike Martin, was not able to tighten up at the right time. He handed the visitors eight passes. Regina's two runs came in the 4th. Casey Smith, the first man up, singled, Herriot following him doubled, scoring Smith and coming in himself on an overthrow to the plate.

Score—
Medicine Hat 000 120 40—7 1 4
Regina 000 200 000—2 7
Hatteries—Martin and Bias; Rhodes and Netter.

ROBINS DEFEAT LEAGUE-LEADING QUAKERS 4 TO 1

Whisman Had Good Day at Center for Winners, Catching Files.

Saskatoon, June 25.—Moore saw took the third game of the series here yesterday afternoon when Kallio loosened up in the sixth and allowed four hits which allowed four runs. Feet opposed Kallio, and although given an all-right support, Whisman had a good day at center, having his fly net handy seven times.

The Quakers had great difficulty in keeping the ball on the ground and the majority of their hits were flies. The Hatters earned the four runs they got in the sixth inning. Whisman, Price, Wally and O'Day got singles in succession, two runs coming in, on Wally's drive down the third base line. O'Day came in on an infield out after stealing third. They also had a good day on the paths as five stolen bases were checked up to them. Walters singled in the fifth, but was caught napping at first. Collins walked and scored on Harley's drive to the left field fence, the latter being out trying to stretch it into a home. Yale and Allison reported to Weed yesterday from Tacoma and were seen at third and left field, respectively. Neither one of them showed anything worth writing home about.

Score—
Moore Jaw 000 004 000—4 8 0
Saskatoon 000 110 000—1 7 3
Hatteries—Peet and Wally; Kallio and Walters.

Willis J. Abbot, the versatile writer on International subjects and author of many books of history and travel, spent months in Panama and the Canal Zone in the preparation of this volume. He collected at first hands the complete history of the great Canal, with a wealth of historical data concerning Panama which has never before been written. The result is a human interest story of this beautiful land and its people from the early days when Columbus tried to find a natural waterway from the Atlantic to the Pacific, down to the present time.

Special staff photographers made the hundreds of beautiful views which illustrate practically every page of this exhaustive book.

The well-known artist, E. J. Read, made the sixteen sumptuous water-color studies which are reproduced by the latest color processes on specially made paper.
